No. 219-M.—F. No. 70, dated 14th December 1900.

The Government of Mysore are pleased to direct that the following rule be added as Rule 132 (a) of the Rules under the Mysore Mines Regulation III of 1897, published with Notification No. 94-M., dated 9th December 1897, and amended by Notification No. 178-M., dated 14th February 1898:—

“Rule 132 (a)—

Whenever two working places below ground approach one another so closely that any further blasting will reduce the intervening rock to a thickness of six feet or less, such further blasting must be conducted from one working place only and not from both, and during blasting hours in the one place all workmen must be withdrawn from the other place.”

By Order,

W. F. SMEETH,
Secy. to Govt., Geological Dept.
